FROM NEW YORK.

Skipped the City-Troubles of the Pedestrians-More Immigrants.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.-E. H. Hempel, dealer in milinery goods in Eroome street and George T. Bauer, manufac-turer of trimmed hats in Canal street are believed to have left the city leaving a large amount of unpaid indebtedness. Hempel is said to owe upward of $200,000. He came here in July stating to the trade that he was a Memphis refugee, and that he had seven thous-and dollars in cash and expected four or five thousand dollars more as soon as his cotton business in the fever stricken city had been settled up. His creditors have employed detectives to search for him. His place of business was closed on a pretext of death in the family. When entered by the officers it was found that his goods had been removed, leaving only empty cases in the room.

TROUBLE AMONG THE PEDESTRIANS. The discovery that Madison Square Garden track lacks some 59 feet of being a full mile in length threatens to lead to litigation and it is alleged that General B. F. Butler has been engaged to bring civil action against Ennis, Krohne and Weston to recover Hart's share of the gate money received by them.

ARRIVAL OF IMMIGRANTS. The steamer "General Werder' which arrived yesterday from Bremen brought over about two hundred and immigrants bound for Texas, where they intend to settle as farmers and farm laborers. Most of them came from Rhenish Prussia, and the rest were Bohemians and Poles from the province of Posen. Over one hundred and sixty engaged passage direct from Bremen to Galveston via New Orleans, and were to have sailed by the steamer "Hanover," but on account of the prevalence of the yellow fever at the latter place it was deemed best to bring them via New York.

Lotteries and the Mail.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 .- The Assistant Attorney General of the Post Office Department, upon a case recently submitted to him, has given his opinion, that under the 226th section of the regulations, which is section 3894 of the revised statutes as amended by the act of July 12th, 1876, letters addressed to lottery companies or to individuals, when addressed to them as agents for such companies, are unmailable per se, and that postmasters should refuse to register letters when so addressed. A circular has been issued, in accordance with its conclusions, instructing all postmasters to refuse to mail or register letters or circulars so addressed, or to mail or register circulars to schemes against which the Postmaster General has issued orders under the provisions of section 873 and 1045 of the postal laws and regulations of 1879. A list of these schemes, nearly one hundred in num-ber, may be found in the September and

THE UNITED STATES MARSHALD REASSURED.

Intrenched in the Mountains.

Baltimore Sun, 4th. Washington, October 3.—The United States marshals throughout the country have been somewhat reassured by the promise of Representative At-kins, chairman of the House committee on appropriations, that their necessary expenses shall be provided for on the reassembling of Congress. This is in perfect accordance with the under standing when Congress adjourned While it was settled that not another dollar should be drawn from the treasury to pay men appointed simply to push the fortunes of one political party there was an unanimous acquiescence that the necessary and proper expenses of the United States marshals should be provided for at the earliest practicable moment. In some of the districts the expenses of the marshals are very heavy in connection with the enforcement of the internal revenue laws. This is notably the case in the western district of North Carolina, where the marshal has on an average fifty deputies in constant employ, and even with break up illicit distilling.

AN OUTLAW INTRENCHED. Colonel Robert M. Douglas, the Unitted States marshal for this district, is now here on official business. Mr. Douglas says that Redmond, the notorious South Carolina moonshiner, apon whose head a price has been set by the government for the killing of one of its officers, is now firmly trenched in the mountains of Swain county, N. C., with a band of twentyfive or thirty desperate followers. Only a few days back some of Marshal Douglas' deputies ran across Redmond and his band, but as they were much inferior in point of numbers they withdrew from the vicinity without much ceremony. The only reason why Redmond has not been apprehended is believed to be on account of the insufficiency of the reward offered by the government—$250. There are plen ty of mountaineers on the Lorders of North and South Carolina just as brave and desperate as Redmond, and if the reward was made sufficient to excite their cupidity they would track him to his fastnesses and bring him out.

Marshal Douglas says if the government will make the reward $1,000 he will wager that Redmond will be forthcoming. Probable Murder and Attempted Sui-

Yesterday afternoon a negro named Jake McLean, living about four miles from Pineville, in the Southern part of this county, made a desperate attempt upon the life of his wife, cutting her throat in such a manner as, it is be-lieved, will result fatally. Officers went to arrest him when, with the same knife, he cut his own throat. He was put in a wagon and brought to Pineville, bleeding profusely all the while. There a surgeon dressed the wound and the egro was brought to this city by the 4 o'clock train and put in jail. It is stated that he has crazy spells and that it was in one of these that he did the bloody work. What the immediat

Chatham Record. Mr. A. H. Perry, of this county, informed us a few days ago, that his little son killed in his yard, a black snake, measuring about fifteen inches in length, and about one and a half inches in circumference, and had two perfect heads. He also said that the snake could use both tongues at the same time.

Cheatham, Esq., clerk of the court of that county, has a four acre patch planted in cotton, from which he has already picked, ginned, and packed five bales, averaging four hundred and forty-eight pounds. Mr. Cheatham believes, and other good planters agree with him, that he will yet get two below. yet get two bales.

MR. TILDEN'S POSITION.

THE NEW YORK STATESMAN EX-PLAINS HIMSELF.

He is Not Seeking the Democratic Presidential Nomination, and Never Has Sought It.

Washington Post.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.-I called on Mr. Tilden this morning to learn what truth there was in the widely-circulated statement lately made by "a reliable gentleman," who represented himself to have been for a long time on intimate personal relations with the distinguished New York statesman. After a careful reading of the article as republished in the New York papers, Mr. Tilden inquired as to the name of the author. I replied that I did not know of my own personal knowledge, but that J. Hale Sypher, former Republican member of Congress from Louisiana, was credited with its concoction.

"I do not know Sypher," Mr. Tilden responded "To the best of my knowl-edge and recollection I have never seen him. I am quite sure he has never been at my house at Yonkers, or Gramercy Park, and I am equally positive that no such conversation as is stated in this alleged interview to have taken place between us, ever occurred at Greystone "Have you ever had any such conversation with anybody?" I asked.

"With the exception of the single remark that I have not been and am not now doing anything whatever toward securing the Democratic renomination for the Presidency, every statement therein made is mere fiction and coinage of the brain." "This article asserts," I continued "that you have not hesitated to indulge, with your intimate friends, in sharp criticism of the South; its methods and politics, its course in bringing about an extra session of Congress, and the acrimonious debates which followed; its neglect of or repudiation of State and municipal indebtedness and the turbulence exhibited in so many Southern communities. You are quoted as condemning the neglect of its good citizens to give expression to their disapproval of such courses, which have seriously weighted Northern Democrats and made the election of the Democratic candidate for the Presidency exceedingly problematical. What of all this,

Mr. Tilden?" "You may say that if these declarations purport to have been the result of an interview with me they are forgeries. If it is intended by the article, whatever its authorship, to make public my expressions in the way of criticisms of current political events, either as expressed by me to my intimate friends or to the author of this alleged interview, it is more than ever a forgery. have indulged in no such expressions do not care to go into them in detail, for it would be useless for me to attemp to deny all that might be attributed to me by ingenious but mendacious correspondents, but it ought to be enough for me to say that I do not know Mr. Sypher. If it be true as alleged, that he is the informant of the editor of the paper first making this publication, I have to state that he has never been my guest at my house, and that the sentiments attributed to me have never been ut-tured by me to intimate friends, and certainly not to casual visitors. I can say that I have not taken any steps to secure a renomination by the Democratic party for the Presidency. I can say also that I do not contemplate taking any measures to secure such nomi-nation, or to reject it before it is offered 1 am credited with having an agent in every voting precinct throughout the United States, and with many more equally absurd devices, to secure that which I do not seek. So far as the article referred to is concerned it is a fabrication and a forgery, and that I may say and that you may say," replied Mr. Tilden, with emphasis.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

PROVOKED BY THE POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT.

The Indians Defrauded in the Most Shameless Manner by Government Traders and Contractors.

Washington Repuplican, 3d.

The country is again started by an Indian outbreak on our Southwestern frontier, and the only surprise, under the circumstances, is that there are not more of them, for they are really provoked by the policy of this Government in dealing with the remnant of Indians who are left to represent the original owners of this continent. It is deeply to be regretted that the handful of soldiers who are dignified as our army, and who have been detailed for duty on the frontier to protect the lives and property of the frontier settlements, should have suffered so severely from a conflict with the nomadic tribes who traverse the wilds of New Mexico, Arizona, Wyoming, Dakotah and Colorado, in pursuit of game and a precarious subsistence, unprotected and un-provided for by their proper guardian, the Government of the United States. The Utes who are involved in this fresh outbreak are undoubtedly among the most peaceable of all the remnant of Indian tribes in the United States. The people of Colorado, Wyoming and Utah have entered and departed from immunity for many years, while the GOVERNMENT TRADERS AND CONTRAChave been defrauding them in the most shameless manner. But once, pre-vious to this outbreak, has there been any serious rebellion on the part of the Utes. The White River Utes and another band left their reservations and another band left their reservations and took the war path, but were induced to return under a pledge that they would remain, which they have done up to this time under the most aggravating conditions. On that occasion the military very sensibly refrained from any attempt at their pacification. G. W. Dodge, it appears, undertook that work, and accomplished it at a cost of $16,000—a part of which the Indian Office refused to pay, notwithstanding the order was made by Secretary Delano and was in the handwriting of Assistant Secrein the handwriting of Assistant Secre-

It is alleged, and no doubt with some show of justice, that for years the Government has utterly failed to honorably meet its obligations toward these Indians. For some two years at one time their goods were en route and undelivered. When Mr. Meeker was appointed to that agency, at the instance of Sena-tor Teller, this was the status of affairs with the Utes. Mr. Meeker has proved one of the most upright and competent men in that branch of the public ser-Congress which has failed to make appriations for some $75,000 to $100,000 due to these Indians. It was sincerely hoped that Mr. Meeker's appointment would avert further calamities, but his efforts have not been properly seconded by his government, and the country is

NOW REAPING THE CONSEQUENCES. To other wrongs inflicted upon the Utes may be added the unrestrained trespasses of the miners upon their reservation, which should have been prevented by the Government, and other invasions equally aggravating and un-bearable. They complain that trains are sent through their; territory in charge of United States troops against their warnings to the contrary, though this may not be regarded as a grief. These aggravations—some of which are severe, while other complaints perhaps are imaginary—have led to the sacrifice of life in the present case. A proper respect for the obligations of the Government ernment toward these Indians would no doubt have prevented this massacre and will now be spent in attempts to punish these refractory Indians for having resisted the incompetency and injustice of our own Government and its policy. If the Indians who are on the reservations ceded to them by the Government under treaty were protected, as they are entitled to be, against the aggressions of marauding miners and the dishon-esty of Government officials, this outbreak would no doubt have been averted. The pity is, that those who have prompted this difficulty escape its worst consequences. They fall upon the soldier, when they should be upon

ABOUT INDIAN DOGS.

BECIPE FOR MAKING AN ABO, RIGINAL CANINE.

Dencon Richard Smith, a Chienge Clergyman, a Louisville Doctor an anohio Judge Throwing Stones.

Detroit Free Press. Let me give you a full recipe for making an Indian dog, such as we found along Grand Traverse Bay: Take an old fashioned wash bench from five to eight feet long; saw the legs off to within six or eight inchs of the bench; drive a couple of pegs in slanted forwards for ears, another slanted at forty-five degrees for a tail, and you have just such an Indian canine as you see around Torch Lake and New Mission. The very sight of them makes a man shake with laughter, and I really believe they are of more benefit to health-seekers

When we had been in Elk Rapids three days we were joined by Deacon Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Ga-Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, a clergyman from Chicago, a doctor from Louisville, and a Judge from Ohio. They were tired of fishing and wanted a change, and we hired a sailboat and went up the bay to New Mission. Here Indian dors prevailed till you couldn't rest. Deacon Smith began laughing while yet a half a mile from shore, and the clergyman from Chicago declared that he'd

NEVER GO TO ANOTHER MENAGERIE which didn't include a "wash-bench" dog among its natural curiosities. Several Indians came down to meet us and exhibit the sand-cracks in their heels, and beg for money and tobacco, and one solemn old veteran, with a broken nose, soon discovered that we were tickled to death with the odd-shaped dogs. Sending a boy to hunt for a rope, the old man caught a particularly lively "wash-bench," and tied him to a stake on the beach. We were all thinking he meant to kill the canine with a club, when he came forward and ex-plained that we might throw stones at the dog as long as we wanted to, for a cent a throw. It was the oddest thing yet encountered, and it drew a full

"Count me in for fifty throws!" shouted the Judge, as he shed his coat and grabbed for pebbles.
"If I can't knock his blasted head off in ten shots, I'll make the Gazette a midnight paper!" chucked Deacon Smith, as he hung his coat on a limb. All of us were eminently satisfied with the low rates and fun ahead except the Chicago precher. He declared that it was a sin of the biggest sort, and that he wouldn't stay and see old "wash-bench" keeled over. He withdrew behind the pines, and the four of us stood in a row facing the dog, and began busdred feet to the dog, and each one of us felt certain that we could plump him at every shot. Alas! these Indian dogs

A SET OF BASE DECEIVERS! You might as well try to hit a flash of lightning. He sat there on the sand as cool as ice until we had wasted fifteen cents apiece and got his range. Then he got down to business. Such twisting and dodging no man ever saw be-fore. It made no difference to him once—he dodged every stone.

"Fifty more throws, and two to one that I keel him over!" shouted the Judge, as he tossed the old redskin a second half-dollar.

"I accept the amendment and demand a fair show," added the Deacon, as he fished up a dollar bill from his vest pocket. "Gentlemen," said the Chicago preacher, from his retreat in the pines, I protest against this in the name of humanity! Some of you will hit that dog yet!"

"Blowed if we don't!" muttered Deacon Smith, and we got to work again.

I believe we cheated that dried-up, smoked-faced old Indian out of more than three hundred extra shots. plowed the beach all up behind and around the dog; we threw over him, under him, and alongside of him,

BUT WE NEVER TOUCHED A HAIR. At last, when the four of us had thrown away about $6, the Deacon picked up a club and started for the stake, saying:
"No durned wash-bench of a dog can put up a job on me and live to behold my sorrow!" I think he might possibly have hit the dog with his club, but before he got to the stake the brute slipped the rope and made for the pines. The Chicago preacher was gathering winter-greens up there, and the dog got even with the rest of us by running over him, biting him in the leg, and rolling him down a sand-bluff twenty feet high. We dropped down on the sand to laugh, and the good man must have been offe our sinful levity. It was all of thirty-six hours before he spoke to one of us

THE New York Tribune has garbled the Mississippi convict law and calls it serfdom.

A THE New Orleans Democrat, in speaking of the "Wiltz wave," states that the canvass of the State by parishes shows 210 votes certain for Wiitz, 53 for Ogden and 74 unknown,

THE Springfield (Mass.) Republican says: "Thomas F. Bayard is to-day the only prominent leader with an immediate future in the Democratic party. He represents something more than the Democratic organization-he represents independence in politics."

THE Raleigh News confesses that through ignorance of the man in charge of its office Tourgee's independent boom was put in as leaded matter. The News is only to be blamed for not having better men.-Reidville Times.

Well, this same person came here direct from the Times office, and professed to know something. But perhaps the Times office wasn't a good school for

AND up goes another wail on account of lost opportunities. The Greensboro North States says:

There is a rumor that some capitalists of this city propose to erect several to-bacco factories for rent. It is a pity they did not think of this years ago, fore Durham, Winston and Reidsville bad been built up by business, which by a little liberality on the part of our business men might have been brought to Greensboro.

According to the New York papers, the Robinson ratification meeting had the advantage of the Tammany Hall rally both in numbers and respectability. That it should be a more "hightoned" affair was to be expected, but that it should out-number Tammany is rather surprising, in view of the claims of the latter to have the bulk of the New York Democracy.

THE Wilkesboro Index well says: "The New York World claims to have 4,705 subscribers to its weekly edition from North Carolina. It is a mournful showing for the sense of people that such a paper as the World should bag a larger number of North Carolina readers than perhaps any one of our State papers. To say that the World is as weak as pond water is putting it mildly. It is worse than weak. It is weakly wicked."

GENERAL POPE pronounces the Utes the most worthless tribe on the face of the continent, and demands their removal from Colorado. Nosentimentalities can save them now, and they must go or be exterminated. If the Government does not take them out of the way, the people of Colorado will,

General Pope, while at West Point, was dubbed "lying Jack Pope," and it is more than probable that his old tricks still stick to him; anyhow his word is not considered very weighty. As for the Indians being exterminated, that result will depend more on the efforts of some one else. The General was going to squelch the Confederacy when he announced his "headquarters in the saddle," and it ended in a quick and inglorious fizzle.

OUR esteemed contemporary, the Boston Journal, calls our attention to the alleged fact that Mr. Justice Miller has denied that he ever made a statement to the effect that Mr. Tilden really received a majority of the votes of Louisiana. This denial escaped us. Will the Journal inform us whether the denial was absolute or evasive? Did Mr. Justice Miller deny that he made the statement reported in the New York Sun, or did he endeavor to explain it?—Atlanta

The Constitution needn't worry over the matter. The Boston Herald gave the Journal such a slap about the same thing that the latter named paper has forgotten all about the denial. It placed Mr. Justice Miller in the light of a perjured judge if he held to the explanation purported to have come from him in relation to the decision.

WE called attention to the fact in our last issue, that the Raleigh NEWS said that a lawyer of national reputation, said lawyer being a Democrat, would run as an independent candidate for Governor. We asked the News to give the people his name and if it would sup-port him in case he failed to get the radical support and forced himself on the Democrats. The News does not answer .- Warrenton Gazette.

In the first place we never stated that any Democratic lawyer of national reputation was to run as an independent candidate for Governor; secondly, we fully and clearly defined the position of the NEWS in its issues of Wednesday and Thursday mornings last. To avoid any further misunderstanding we will once more announce that the NEWS is a regular Democratic newspaper and will support the regular Democratic nominee. Is this explicit enough?

THE Tribune is again in distress. It was so positively certain that the defection of Mr. Kelly and his Tammany crew would defeat Governor Robinson that it overflowed with joy. It bubbled and gushed in admiration of Mr. Kelly's course-he was helping on the right by contributing to the election of Mr. Cornell. And now listen to the amiable Whitelaw:

However much or little of Tilden's money has gone to Ohio, there is no doubt about an abundant supply for this State. It is already in full flow. When-ever a Kelly club is announced there immediately appears a Tilden agent who confers with the disgruntled patriots, and makes them see the error of their course. In some cases it has haptheir course. In some cases it has napped that the Kelly club is transformed in the twinkling of an eye into a Robinson club. All this is done so quietly that the casual observer does not notice it. It is the still-hunt system reduced to a science.

THE Hon. William T. Hamilton, of Maryland, thinks that Horatio Sey-mour, of New York, is the man for the Democrats to nominate for President He is an able statesman and would, if elected, make us a most excellent President. But here is where the trouble comes in. It would be a very difficult matter to elect him over Grant, by whom he has been defeated once before, because in proportion as victory inspires confidence in the victor, just in that proportion defeat detracts from the vanquished. Give us a man who has never been beaten, and our chances for success even against Grant are very that would have killed any nominee; but at the present time he would make the strongest candidate that could be put up. But he is not in the field. He has repeatedly stated that his health is too feeble to admit of his performing the onerous duties attaching to any public executive office, and this ought to be sufficient. If it were possible to induce him to accept the nomination, the National Convention would nominate him by acclamation and he would sweep the country.

WE copy the following from the Statesville Landmark, not for the purpose of blaming the Charlotte Observer for publishing the correspondence, but to show in what esteem the "free lance" that wrote the articles is held throughout the State. Some few small sheets that neither have the sense or courage to avow an individual opinion are always quick to follow the lead of an able paper like the Observer, but fail to make any effort to correct a wrong impression, as the Observer has done:

The Charlotte Observer publishes very frequently the productions of anonymous hangers-on the outskirts of journalism, purporting to come from Washington and Raleigh, concerning State politics. In a recent letter to that journal, serious charges are made against the Raleigh News, challenging its Democracy and asserting that it will champion a "boom" favoring independentism. The similarity in style of the "Lochiel" and "Lowlander" letters betrays the fact that both emanated from the same brain. That spelling business in the "Lochiel" letters is all bosh and so thin that a blind man can see through it. We believe the attack on the NEWS was prompted by malicious motives.

MR. TILDEN AND THE SOUTH.

In another column will be found the result of an interview between Mr. Tilden and the editor of the Washington Post. It . ffectually disposes of the Sypher story. He states that he is not doing anything to secure the Democratic Presidential nomination, Sypher's statement being mere fiction and coinage of the brain. Be this as it may, the nomination of right belongs to Mr. Tilden. He stands before the country today as the victim of the grandest political outrage in our history. He was elected President of the United States three years ago fairly, squarely and honestly, and was defrauded of his office by the Republican party. And we are glad to see him rise up, and, claiming nothing for himself, leave his cause in the hands of the people to be disposed of as they shall see fit.

Kansas.

Wilson Advance. A few days ago a colored man asked us if cotton was raised in Kansas, and whether or not it was cold out there. He said, and the practical colored people entertain the same opinion, that unless cotton could be raised in that State, that the negro had better stay in North Carolina.

We told him that cotton was especially adapted to the Southern States, and was not a production of Kansas, but that the cereals were the principal and nearly entire productions. He said, and by long association with the race we know it to be true, that the negro could not make enough on a wheat crop to sustain him.

The negro has always raised cotton and does not understand the cultivation of oats, wheat or other grain, consequently it is to his advantage to remain in the South.

An Occurrence of a Life Time. Wilson Advance

Last Wednesday morning, Messrs, S. S. Blackwell and S. Farmer, having agreed to stake their reputation as fishermen against Messrs. B. J. Taylor and J. A. Tynes, all went in a party to Barefoot's pond about four miles from Wilson. Arrived at the scene of action, and eager for the laurels of victory, they soon announced their presence among the finny tribe by dropping them a line. Throughout the entire day they watched with anxious care judge of their surprise when, upon meeting to settle the matter, the first party found that the other had sixteen fish, exactly their number, and what is more surprising each pile weighed ex-actly the same amount, seventeen and a half pounds. This is what we call a draw game, and the same thing might be attempted every day for twelve months with a different result.

Washington North State Press, 30th Captain James, of the Coast Survey, has been in our town for the past week, looking forward to the cleaning out and improving of Tar River, and we learn that the boat recently built by Captain Boudoin has been employed for the purpose and that work will be com-menced at no distant day. The cleaning out of some of the old logs and sandbars will be a great benefit to the navigation, and cannot be too speedily re moved for our boatmen on the line.

Post Office Robbery. Vashington North State Press, 30th. We learn that the post office at Williamston, N. C., was robbed last week of money, etc., and that one Sylvester Wells, a colored man, who has been around here for some time past, was arrested for the same, but nothing being found upon him was turned loose, but after leaving town, and being some distance out on the road, was rearrested when a gold watch belonging to Mr Sitterson and other articles were found on his person. He was taken to jail and now awaits the coming of the United States Court.

The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in genera are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin: his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER-Gentlemen

Life a burden from the sufferings caused by this terrible disease.

Please accept my most grateful thanks for the great, very great, comfort I have re-ceived from the use of your CUTICURA. For the past eight or nine years I have been troubled with that dreadful disease, Salt Rheum, For months I would be helpless,—my very For months I would be helpless,—my very life a burden to me.

I have used everything in the shape of medicine, both external and internal, but with no effect.

My hands were in a terrible condition, the backs of them being all raw, and I thought I would try CUTICURA.

I tried it, and lo! it was as if a miracle had been performed, for I will take my oath that in three applications my hands were as smooth as a new-born babe's.

I presume there are hundreds, if not thousands, who know of my case, among whom there may be some one similarly afflicted, and if so I would earnestly advise him to give CUTICURA a trial.

Yours, very thankfully,

your CUTICURA, and, thank God, my hands are well. I never had anything do me good like that.
You may put this in the paper and welccme, and may it do some other poor sufferer the same good it has done me! I am well known here, having lived here almost fifteen years and kept boarders for a living, and sometimes my heart was sore, thinking I would have to give up altogether with my sore hands, and having a small family to take care of; but oh! thank God, my hands are well, so I again return thanks.

these ordering. -The funeral of the little son of Mr. John T. Womble took place yesterdry afternoon from the residence of Jordan Womble, Sr.

-The funeral of Dr. Burkhead's little daughter took place from the Edenton street Methodist church yesterday afternoon.

-Wilmington street presented a lively appearance yesterday, and all the merchants seemed busy. Business was good in all branches of trade.

-It is a pleasure to cell attention to the advertisement of Mr, Isaac Oettinger. His house is so well and favorably known that it is unnecessary to say more about it. -Attention is called to the new advertisement of Messrs. Redford & Arendell, the Hargett street grocers. This young firm appears to be doing —Mary Jones, colored, daughter of Uncle Friday Jones, died yesterday at 11:30 o'clock, aged thirty one years. The funeral takes place to-day at 2 o'clock from the first (colored) Baptist church. -The resolution of the Board of Aldermen passed on Friday evening is bearing practical fruit. Last night Wilmington street, where the lewd women most do congregate, was completely

-Patrons are once more requested to hand in their advertising before 3 P. M. to insure insertion. This is pos-itively necessary, as we are obliged to devote the later hours in getting up the late news.

—The industrial parade to come off on Wednesday of Fair week, promises to be a grand affair. All our mechanics and business men generally should interest themselves and make this fea-ture a success indeed.

-The Durham Light Infantry will spend Thursday at the fair. The secretary of the company has notified Captain Denson that they will be pres-They have never visited the city, and will be heartily welcomed, being as they are, our nearest neighbors.

-Colonel A. Gorrell, chief marshal, writes to the Secretary, that the ladies of Winston and Salem will be well represented at the fair. We are glad of it. They know how to make whatever is beautiful, and tasteful, as witness their handiwork in former years. Good luck to the people of the double town.

-Donations continue to reach the —Donations continue to reach the secretary of the fair in liberal supply. These will be exhibted at the fair, and will be sold under the direction of the following committee: General R. F. Hoke, William G. Upchurch, Major W. H. Bagley, W. B. Gulick. Look out for the sales during the latter part of the fair week at the grounds.

-The committee to arrange for the procession of trades are progressing finely. Every business man in Ral-the law office of Battle & Mordecai. It will be the novel feature of the Fair and great interest is expressed in it.

Let no live man be behind. We shallalso have some visitors from other places who have informed the secretary of their intention.

-The frame work for the large green house to be built in Nash square park is completed. Professor Fairchild has hands at work daily fixing up things, and it will not be a great while before this square will be a beautiful spot.

-Entries for the Fair are coming in liberally. Parties writing should not say, "I want to enter a lot of chickens, some sheep and a few cows," but should inform the Secretary exactly how many, and of what variety, that the entry-may be properly made and completed at once; send a list with each application for space.

-Full schedules of all trains will be published in a day or two, as soon as received from the roads. The general rate of fare will be 1½ cents per mile each way, making 3 cents for the round trip, barely one-third of the usual price. Every effort will be made to secure trains enough to accommodate the public. There were not cars enough year, to bring the people who desired to attend. We hope the railroads will prepare this time, for the people are

How Great Men Die. Since the death of Speaker Kerr and Senator Morton, of Bright's Disease, it has been noticed and noted that a large number of our public men and leading business men die too early from the same or a similar cause. By using Warner's Safe Cure, their diseases will be cured, and their valuable lives prolonged. The time is coming when, because of this remedy, no one will die of such diseases as Bright's and

All Northern five cent cigars that are sold to the Southern trade, are highly flavored with pungent essential oils, and alcohol. Such eigars as the "Capadura" and others of the same ilk, are notoriously known among experts to be filled with seed tobacco, highly flavored, and wrapped with dark colored leaf, made black by a process of lead and other poisonous substances highly injurious to consumers. What do these big manufacturing Northern monopolists care for the health of the smoking public as long as they make money. On the contrary, Leopold's "Little Maimee" and "Dorothea" brands of cigars are home-made, and consists of a pure fancy Havana filler, and a first quality of natural colored wrapper, free from all deleterious flavorings and col-orings, safe and reliable, and is a ten cent cigar for five cents.
